Object of Act

3. The object of this Act is to enhance the welfare of the people of Tanzania as a whole by promoting and protecting effective competition in markets and preventing unfair and misleading market conduct throughout Tanzania in order to-

- (a) increase efficiency in the production, distribution and supply of goods and services;
- (b) promote innovation;
- (c) maximise the efficient allocation of resources; and
- (d) protect consumers.

Bodies corporate under common control to be regarded as single person for purposes of sections 8, 9 and 10

4.-(1) For the purposes of sections 8, 9 and 10, if a body corporate controls another body corporate, the bodies corporate shall be regarded as a single person.

(2) A body corporate shall control another body corporate within the meaning of subsection (1) if the first-mentioned body corporate-

- (a) owns or controls a majority of the shares carrying the right to vote at a general meeting

- of the other body corporate;
- (b) has the power to control the composition of a majority of the board of directors or other governing organ of the other body corporate; or
- (c) has the power to make decisions in respect of the conduct of the affairs of the other body corporate.

Competition in markets and dominant position in market
Act No.
13 of 2024
s. 4

5.-(1) The expressions referred to under Part II in accordance to this section shall be interpreted in accordance with this section.

(2) “Competition” means competition in a market in Tanzania and refers to the process whereby two or more persons-

- (a) supply or attempt to supply the same or substitutable goods or services to the persons in the same relevant geographical market; or
- (b) acquire or attempt to acquire the same or substitutable goods or services from the persons in the same relevant geographical market.

(3) A person is a “competitor” of another person if they are in competition with each other or would, but for an agreement to which the two persons are parties, be likely to be in competition with each other.

(4) “Market” means a market in Tanzania or a part of Tanzania and refers to the range of reasonable possibilities for substitution in supply or demand between particular kinds of goods or services and between suppliers or acquirers, or potential suppliers or acquirers, of those goods or services.

(5) In defining markets, assessing effects on competition or determining whether a person has a dominant position in a market, the following matters, in addition to other relevant matters, shall be taken into account:

- (a) competition from imported goods and services supplied by persons not resident or carrying

- on business in Tanzania; and
 - (b) the economic circumstances of the relevant market including the market shares of persons supplying or acquiring goods or services in the market, the ability of those persons to expand their market shares and the potential for new entry into the market.
- if-
- (6) A person has a dominant position in a market
 - (a) acting alone or with another person can profitably and materially restrain or reduce competition in that market for a significant period of time; and
 - (b) the person's shares in the relevant market, severally or jointly, exceeds forty percent.

Application of
Act to Mainland
Tanzania, state bodies and local government bodies

6.-(1) This Act shall apply to Mainland Tanzania, state bodies and local government bodies in so far as they engage in trade.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), the State shall not be liable to any fine or penalty under this Act or be liable to be prosecuted for an offence against this Act.

(3) For the purposes of this section, without affecting the meaning of "trade" in other respects-

- (a) the sale or acquisition of a business, part of a business or an asset of a business carried on by the State, a State body or a local government body constitutes engaging in trade; and
- (b) the following do not constitute engaging in trade:
 - (i) the imposition or collection of taxes;
 - (ii) the grant or revocation of licences, permits and authorities;
 - (iii) the collection of fees for licences, permits and authorities; and
 - (iv) internal transactions within the Government, a State body or a local government body.

Extra-territorial operation

7. This Act shall apply to conduct outside Mainland Tanzania by-

- (a) a citizen of Tanzania or a person ordinarily resident in Tanzania;
- (b) a body corporate incorporated in Tanzania or carrying on business within Tanzania;
- (c) a person in relation to the supply or acquisition of goods or services by that person into or within Tanzania; or
- (d) a person in relation to the acquisition of shares or other assets outside Tanzania resulting in the change of control of a business, part of a business or an asset of a business, in Tanzania.

PART II RESTRICTIVE TRADE PRACTICES

Anti-competitive agreements
Act No.
13 of 2024
ss. 2 and 5

8.-(1) A person shall not make or give effect to an agreement if the object, effect or likely effect of the agreement is to appreciably prevent, restrict or distort competition.

(2) An agreement in contravention of this section is unenforceable except to the extent the provisions of the agreement causing it to be in contravention of the section are severable from the other provisions of the agreement.

(3) Unless proved otherwise, it shall be presumed that an agreement does not have the object, effect or likely effect of appreciably preventing, restricting or distorting competition if none of the parties to the agreement has a dominant position in a market affected by the agreement if-

- (a) the combined shares of the parties to the agreement of each market affected by the agreement is forty percent or less; or
 - (b) none of the parties to the agreement are competitors.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, in determining whether the effect or likely effect of an agreement is to appreciably prevent, restrict or distort competition, the fact that similar agreements are widespread in a market affected by the agreement shall be taken into account.

(5) This section does not apply to an agreement to the extent it provides for a merger.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (1), an object is the object of an agreement if it is a significant object of the agreement even if it is only one of a number of objects of the agreement.

(7) A person who acts in contravention of the provisions of this section, commits an offence under this Act.

Prohibition of certain
agreements
irrespective of their effect on competition
Act No.
13 of 2024
ss. 2 and 6

9.-(1) A person shall not make or give effect to an agreement if the object, effect or likely effect of the agreement is-

- (a) price fixing between competitors;
- (b) output restrictions between competitors;
- (c) allocation of market or customer;
- (d) a collective boycott by competitors;
- (e) collusive bidding or tendering.

(2) In this section-

(a) “price fixing between competitors” means to fix, restrict or control the prices, tariffs, surcharges or other charges for, or the terms or conditions upon which, a party to an agreement supplies or acquires, or offers to supply or acquire, goods or services, in competition with any other party to the agreement;

(b) “collective boycott by competitors” means-

- (i) to prevent a party to an agreement from supplying goods or services to particular persons, or acquiring goods or services from particular persons, in competition with any other party to the agreement; or

- (ii) to restrict or control the terms and conditions on which, or the circumstances in which, a party to an agreement supplies goods or services to particular persons, or acquires goods or services from particular persons, in competition with any other party to the agreement;
- (c) “output restrictions between competitors” means to prevent, restrict or control the production by a party to an agreement of goods or services to be supplied in competition with any other party to the agreement; and
- (d) “collusive bidding or tendering” means-
 - (i) to fix or control the prices or terms or conditions of any bid or tender by any of the parties to an agreement at an auction or in any tender or other form of bidding, in competition with any other party to the agreement; or
 - (ii) to prevent a party to an agreement from making a bid or tender at an auction or in any tender or other form of bidding, in competition with any other party to the agreement; and
- (e) “allocation of market or customer” means the allocation of a market or customer among competitors so as to limit the choice of doing business within a defined geographical territory, a defined product category or certain specified customers.

(3) An agreement in contravention of this section is unenforceable except to the extent the provisions of the agreement causing it to be in contravention of the section are severable from the other provisions of the agreement.

(4) A person who acts in contravention of the provisions of this section, commits an offence under this Act.

Leniency programme
Act No.
13 of 2024
s. 7

9A.-(1) The Commission may operate a leniency programme by reducing or exonerating a penalty applicable to a person who engages in agreements prohibited under section 9, where such person voluntarily discloses the existence of the agreement and cooperates with the Commission in the investigation of the prohibited practice.

(2) The leniency programme shall be as prescribed in the rules.

Misuse of market power
Act No.
13 of 2024
ss. 2 and 8

10.-(1) A person with a dominant position in a market shall not use his position of dominance if the object, effect or likely effect of the conduct is to exploit customers or appreciably prevent, restrict or distort competition.

(2) Where the Commission has granted an exemption under section 12 for an agreement, conduct of a person in making or giving effect to that agreement is not prohibited by this section during the period of the exemption.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1), an object is the object of conduct if it is a significant object of the conduct even if it is only one of a number of objects.

(4) A person who acts in contravention of the provisions of this section, commits an offence.

(5) Abuse of dominant position under this section includes-

- (a) directly or indirectly imposing unfair purchase or selling prices or other unfair trading conditions;
- (b) limiting or restricting production, market outlets or market access, innovation, investment, distribution, technical development or technological progress to the prejudice of consumers;
- (c) predatory pricing;
- (d) margin squeeze;
- (e) cross subsidisation;

- (f) refusal to deal;
- (g) denial of access to an essential facility;
- (h) tying and bundling;
- (i) discrimination in price or trading conditions to the prejudice of suppliers or consumers;
- (j) loyalty discount and rebates that harm competition;
- (k) abuse of an intellectual property right; and
- (l) making agreements subject to acceptance of supplementary conditions which by their nature have no connection with the subject matter.

Prohibition of vertical agreement
Act No.
13 of 2024 s.9

10A.-(1) A person shall not make or give effect to an agreement which involves-

- (a) re-sale prices or conditions maintenance;
- (b) foreclosing customers or competitors from access to sources of supply or from access to outlets; or
- (c) restricting movement of goods or services between different geographical areas.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1)(a), a person may recommend a minimum re-sale price to the reseller of goods or services if-

- (a) the supplier or producer makes it clear to the re-seller that the recommendation is not binding; and
- (b) the product has a price stated on it and the words "recommended price" appear the next to stated price.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence.

Mergers and acquisitions
Act No.
13 of 2024
ss. 2 and 10

11.-(1) A merger is prohibited if it substantially lessens competition in a market.

(2) A merger is notifiable under this section if it involves turnover or assets above threshold amounts the Commission shall specify by order, in the Gazette, calculated in the manner prescribed in the order.

(3) Where, within fourteen days after receipt of a notification of a merger under subsection (2), the Commission determines that the proposed merger should be examined, the merger shall be prohibited for a period of ninety days thereafter or such further period as the Commission determines under subsection (4), unless the Commission earlier determines the merger should not be prohibited.

(4) The Commission may extend the period of ninety days referred to in subsection (3)-

(a) for such further period not exceeding thirty days as the Commission sees fit; and

(b) in addition, where the Commission determines its consideration of the merger has been delayed in obtaining information from any of the parties to the proposed merger, for such further period as the Commission considers it has been so delayed.

(5) Without limiting the operation of subsection (1), a person shall not give effect to a notifiable merger unless it has, at least fourteen days before doing so, filed with the Commission a notification of the proposed merger supplying such information as the Commission may, by order, require to be included in such notification.

(6) A person who acts in contravention of the provisions of this section commits an offence under this Act.

Merger resulting from substantial public benefits
Act No.
13 of 2024
s. 11

11A.-(1) The Commission may approve a merger prohibited under section 11(1) upon satisfaction that the proposed merger is likely to result into substantial benefits to the public which would outweigh any detriment caused by the proposed merger on preventing, restraining or distorting competition.

(2) In determining the substantial public benefits under subsection (1), the Commission shall consider the following factors:

(a) the extent to which the proposed merger shall contribute to the greater efficiency in the

- allocation of resources;
- (b) the extent to which the proposed merger would, or is likely to, promote technical or economic progress and the transfer of skills, or otherwise improve the production or distribution of goods or the provision of services in Mainland Tanzania;
- (c) the extent to which the target firm faces actual or imminent financial failure and the proposed merger offers the least anti-competitive alternative use of the assets of the business;
- (d) the extent to which the proposed merger shall boost exports from Mainland Tanzania or employment in Mainland Tanzania;
- (e) the extent to which the proposed merger shall affect a particular industrial sector or region;
- (f) the extent to which the proposed merger may affect the ability of national industries to compete in regional and international markets; and
- (g) the extent to which the proposed merger may affect the ability of small businesses to become competitive.

Exemption of agreements by Commission
Act No.
4 of 2021
s. 8

12.-(1) The Commission may, upon the application of a party to an agreement, grant an exemption for that agreement, either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as the Commission sees fit, if the Commission is satisfied in all the circumstances that both paragraphs (a) and (b) apply-

- (a) the agreement either contravenes section 9 or has, or is likely to have, the effect of appreciably preventing, restraining or distorting competition; and
- (b) the agreement results or is likely to result in benefits to the public in one or more of the following ways:
 - (i) by contributing to greater efficiency in production or distribution;

- (ii) by promoting technical or economic progress;
- (iii) by contributing to greater efficiency in the allocation of resources; or
- (iv) by protecting the environment;

and the agreement-

- (aa) prevents, restrains or distorts competition no more than is reasonably necessary to attain the benefits; and
- (bb) the benefits to the public resulting from the agreement outweigh the detriments caused by preventing, restraining or distorting competition.

(2) The Commission may grant a block exemption, either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as the Commission sees fit, for all agreements falling within a class of agreements if the Commission is satisfied in all the circumstances that paragraph (a) of subsection (1) shall not apply to the class of agreements.

(3) When granting an exemption under this section, the Commission shall fix a period, not exceeding five years from the date the exemption is granted, as the period of the exemption:

Provided that, in the case of an agreement that provides for special arrangement relating to the grant of exemption for an agreement and such arrangement has been approved by the Cabinet, the Commission may, upon application, grant a period of more than five years.

(4) An agreement exempted under this section is not prohibited by section 8 or 9 during the period of the exemption.

(5) For the purposes of this section, “agreement” includes proposed agreement and “party” includes party to a proposed agreement.

(6) The Commission may revoke or vary an exemption at any time during the period of the exemption if it is satisfied that circumstances since the grant of the exemption have materially changed or the exemption was granted wholly or partly on the basis of false, misleading or incomplete information.

Exemption of
mergers
Act No.
13 of 2024
s. 12

13.-(1) The Commission may, upon the application of a party to a merger, grant an exemption for that merger, either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as the Commission sees fit, if the Commission is satisfied in all the circumstances that paragraph (a) and either paragraph (b) or (c) applies-

- (a) the merger is substantially lessens competition in a market;
- (b) the merger results or is likely to result in benefits to the public in one or more of the following ways:
 - (i) by contributing to greater efficiency in production or distribution;
 - (ii) by promoting technical or economic progress;
 - (iii) by contributing to greater efficiency in the allocation of resources; or
 - (iv) by protecting the environment;

and the merger-

- (aa) prevents, restrains or distorts competition no more than is reasonably necessary to attain those benefits; and
 - (bb) the benefits to the public resulting from the merger outweigh the detriments caused by preventing, restraining or distorting competition; and
- (c) in the case of a merger resulting in the change of control of a business, the business faces actual or imminent financial failure and the merger offers the least anti-competitive alternative use of the assets of the business.

(2) When granting an exemption under this section the Commission shall fix a period not exceeding one year from the date the exemption is granted as the period of the exemption.

(3) A merger exempted under this section is not prohibited by section 11 during the period of the exemption.

(4) The Commission may revoke or vary an exemption at any time during the period of the exemption if it is satisfied that circumstances since the grant of the exemption have materially changed or the exemption was granted wholly or partly on the basis of false, misleading or incomplete information.

Exceptions
Act No.
4 of 2021
s. 9

14.-(1) This Part shall not prohibit an agreement to the extent it relates to the remuneration, conditions of employment, hours of work or working conditions of employees.

(2) This Part shall not prohibit an agreement to the extent it provides for compliance with or application of standards of dimension, design, quality or performance prepared or approved by the Tanzania Bureau of Standards or any other association, institution or body prescribed by regulations.

(3) This Part shall not prohibit an agreement to the extent it relates to the export of goods from Tanzania or the supply of services outside Tanzania if such particulars of the agreement, as the Commission may, by order, require, are filed with the Commission within twenty one days after it is made.

(4) Subsection (3) shall cease to apply to an agreement if the Commission decides the agreement may have an effect on competition in Tanzania and notifies the parties to the agreement of that decision.

(5) Where it is necessary to do so in order to comply with the obligations of the United Republic under an agreement with the government of another country, the particular agreement or conduct, or agreements or conduct of particular kind, shall be excluded from the prohibitions in this Part.

(6) Where an agreement provides for special arrangement relating to the implementation of sections 10 and 11, and the said arrangement has been approved by the Cabinet, the application of the provisions of this section shall not prejudice the implementation of such agreement.

PART III MISLEADING AND DECEPTIVE CONDUCT

Misleading or deceptive conduct

15.-(1) A person shall not, in trade, engage in conduct that is misleading or deceptive or is likely to mislead or deceive.

(2) This Part shall not be taken as limiting by implication the generality of subsection (1).

False or misleading representations

16. A person shall not, in connection with supply or possible supply of goods or services or in connection with the promotion by any means of the supply or use of goods or services-

- (a) falsely represent that goods are of a particular standard, quality, grade, composition, style or model or have had a particular history or particular previous use;
- (b) falsely represent that services are of a particular standard quality or grade;
- (c) falsely represent that goods are new;
- (d) falsely represent that a particular person has agreed to acquire goods or services;
- (e) represent that goods or services have sponsorship, approval, performance characteristics, accessories, uses or benefits they do not have;
- (f) represent that he has a sponsorship, approval or affiliation he does not have;
- (g) make a false or misleading representation with respect to the price of goods or services;
- (h) make a false or misleading representation concerning the availability of facilities for the repair of goods or of spare parts for goods;
- (i) make a false or misleading representation

- concerning the place of origin of goods;
- (j) make a false or misleading representation concerning the need for any goods; or
- (k) make a false or misleading representation concerning the existence, exclusion or effect of any condition, warranty, guarantee right or remedy.

Cash price to be stated in certain circumstances

17. A person shall not, in connection with the supply or possible supply of goods or services or in connection with the promotion by any means of the supply or use of goods or services, make a representation with respect to an amount that, if paid, would constitute a part of the consideration for the supply of the goods or services unless he also specifies the cash price for the goods or services.

Misleading conduct in relation to goods

18. A person shall not engage in conduct that is liable to mislead the public as to the nature, the manufacturing process, the characteristics, the suitability for their purpose or the quantity of any goods.

Misleading conduct in relation to services

19. A person shall not, engage in conduct that is liable to mislead the public as to the nature, the characteristics, the suitability for their purpose or the quantity of any services.

Misleading representations about certain business activities

20.-(1) A person shall not make a representation that is false or misleading in a material particular concerning the profitability or risk or any other material aspect of any business activity that he has represented as one that can be, or can be to a considerable extent, carried on at or from a person's place of residence.

(2) Where a person invites, whether by advertisement or otherwise, persons to engage or participate or to offer or apply to engage or participate, in a business activity requiring the performance by the persons concerned of work, or the investment of moneys by the persons concerned and the performance by them of work associated with the investment, he shall not make, with respect to the profitability or risk or any other material aspect of the business activity, a representation that is false or misleading in the material particular.

Application of provisions of Part III to prescribed information providers

21.-(1) This Part does not apply to a prescribed publication of matter by a prescribed information provider other than-

(a) a publication of matter in connection with:

- (i) the supply or possible supply of goods or services; or
- (ii) the promotion by any means of the supply or use of goods or services,

where-

(aa) the goods or services were relevant goods or services, in relation to the prescribed information provider; or

(bb) the publication was made on behalf of, or pursuant to a contract, arrangement or understanding with:

(AA) a person who supplies goods or services of that kind; or

(BB) body corporate that is related to a body corporate that supplies goods or services of that kind; or

(b) a publication of an advertisement.

(2) For the purposes of this section, a publication by a prescribed information provider is a prescribed publication where in any case-

(a) the publication was made by the prescribed information provider in the course of carrying on a business of providing information; or

(b) a person who is a prescribed information provider by virtue of subsection (3), whether or not the person is also a prescribed information provider by virtue of another operation of that definition the publication was by way of radio or television broadcast by the prescribed information provider.

(3) In this section-

“prescribed information provider” means a person who carries on a business of providing information; and

“relevant goods or services” in relation to a prescribed information provider, means goods or services of a kind supplied by the prescribed information provider or, where the prescribed information provider is a body corporate, by a body corporate that is related to the prescribed information provider.

PART IV

UNFAIR BUSINESS PRACTICES

Bait advertising

22.-(1) A person shall not advertise goods or services for supply at a specified price where there are reasonable grounds, of which he is aware, or ought reasonably to be aware, for believing that he shall not be able to offer for supply those goods or services at that price for a period that is, and in quantities that are, reasonable, having regard to the nature of the market in which he carries on business and the nature of the advertisement.

(2) A person who has, in trade, advertised goods or services for supply at a specified price shall offer such goods or services for supply at that price for a period that is, and in quantities that are, reasonable, having regard to the nature of the market in which he carries on business and the nature of the advertisement.

(3) In a prosecution of a person in relation to a failure to offer goods or services to a person, in this subsection referred to as the “customer” in accordance with subsection (2), it is a defence for that person if he establishes that-

(a) he offered to supply or to procure another person to supply goods or services of the kind advertised to the customer within a reasonable time, in a reasonable quantity and at the advertised price; or

- (b) he offered to supply immediately, or to procure another person to supply within a reasonable time, equivalent goods or services to the customer in a reasonable quantity and at the price at which the first-mentioned “goods” or “services” were advertised, and, in either case, where the offer was accepted by the customer, he has so supplied, or procured another person to supply goods or services.

Accepting payment without intending or being able to supply as ordered

23. A person shall not accept payment or other consideration for goods or services where, at the time of the acceptance-

(a) he intends-

- (i) not to supply the goods or services; or
(ii) to supply goods or services materially different from the goods or services in respect of which the payment or other consideration is accepted; or

- (b) there are reasonable grounds, of which he is aware or ought reasonably to be aware, for believing that he will not be able to supply the goods or services within the period specified by him or, where no period is specified, within a reasonable time.

Harassment and coercion

24. A person shall not use physical force or undue harassment or coercion in connection with the supply or possible supply of goods or services to a consumer or the payment for goods or services by a consumer.

PART V UNCONSCIONABLE CONDUCT

Unconscionable conduct
Act No.
13 of 2024
s. 2

25.-(1) A person shall not, in connection with the supply or possible supply of goods or services to a person, engage in conduct that is, in all the circumstances, unconscionable.

(2) Without in any way limiting the matters to which the Commission may have regard for the purposes of determining whether a person has contravened subsection (1) in connection with the supply or possible supply of goods or services to a person, in this subsection referred to as the “consumer”, the Commission may have regard to-

- (a) the relevant strengths of the bargaining positions of the person and the consumer;
- (b) whether, as a result of conduct engaged in by the person, the consumer was required to comply with conditions that were not reasonably necessary for the protection of the legitimate interests of the supplier;
- (c) whether the consumer was able to understand any documents relating to the supply or possible supply of the goods or services;
- (d) whether any undue influence or pressure was exerted on, or any unfair tactics were used against, the consumer or a person acting on behalf of the consumer by the person in relation to the supply or possible supply of the goods or services; and
- (e) the amount for which, and the circumstances under which the consumer could have acquired identical or equivalent goods or services from a person other than a body corporate.

(3) A person shall not be taken for the purposes of this section to engage in unconscionable conduct in connection with the supply or possible supply of goods or services to a person by reason only that he institutes legal proceedings in relation to that supply or possible supply or refers a dispute or claim in relation to that supply or possible supply to arbitration.

(4) For the purposes of determining whether a person has contravened subsection (1) in connection with the supply or possible supply of goods or services to a person-

- (a) the Commission shall not have regard to any circumstances that were not reasonably forceable at the time of the alleged contravention; and
- (b) the Commission may have regard to conduct engaged in, or circumstances existing, before the commencement of this section.

(5) A reference in this section to goods or services is a reference to goods or services of a kind ordinarily acquired for personal, domestic or household use or consumption.

(6) A reference in this section to the supply or possible supply of goods does not include a reference to the supply or possible supply of goods for the purpose of re-supply or for the purpose of using them up or transforming them in trade or commerce.

PART VI IMPLIED CONDITIONS IN CONSUMER CONTRACTS

Conflict of laws

26.-(1) Where-

- (a) the proper law of a contract for the supply by any person of goods or services to a consumer would, but for a term that it should be the law of some other country or a term to the like effect, be the law of any part of the United Republic; or
- (b) a contract for the supply by a person of goods or services to a consumer contains a term that purports to substitute, or has the effect of substituting, provisions of the law of some other country for all or any of the provisions of this Part.

(2) This Part shall apply to any type of contract made or entered between parties under this Act.

Application of provisions not to be excluded

27.-(1) A term of a contract, including term that is not set out in the contract but is incorporated in the

or modified

contract by another term of the contract that purports to exclude, restrict or modify has the effect of excluding, restricting or modifying-

- (a) the application of all or any of the provisions of this Part;
- (b) the exercise of a right conferred by such a provision;
- (c) any liability of the person for breach of a condition or warranty implied by such a provision; or
- (d) the application of section 35,

is void.

(2) A term of a contract shall not be taken to exclude, restrict or modify the application of a provision of this Part or the application of section 35 unless the term does so expressly or is inconsistent with that provision or section.

Limitation of liability for breach of certain conditions or warranties
Act No.
s. 2

28.-(1) Subject to this section, a term of a contract for the supply by a person of goods or services other than goods or services of a kind ordinarily acquired for personal, domestic or household use or consumption is not void under this section by reason only that the term limits his liability for a breach of a condition or warranty, other than a condition or warranty implied by section 29 to-

- (a) in the case of goods-
 - (i) the replacement of the goods or the supply of equivalent goods;
 - (ii) the payment of the costs of replacing the goods or of acquiring equivalent goods;
 - (iii) the payment of the costs of having the goods repaired; or
- (b) in the case of services-
 - (i) the supplying of the services again; or
 - (ii) the payment of the costs of having the services supplied again.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) do not apply in relation to a term of a contract where the person to whom the goods or services were supplied establishes that it is not fair or reasonable for the supplier to rely on that term of the contract.

(3) In determining, for the purposes of subsection (2), whether or not reliance on a term of a contract is fair or reasonable, a Commission shall have regard to all the circumstances of the case and in particular to the following matters:

- (a) the strength of the bargaining positions of the supplier and the person to whom the goods or services were supplied, in this subsection referred to as ‘the buyer’ relative to each other, taking into account, among other things, the availability of equivalent goods or services and suitable alternative sources of supply;
- (b) whether the buyer received an inducement to agree to the term or, in agreeing to the term, had an opportunity of acquiring the goods or services or equivalent goods or services from any source of supply under a contract that did not include that term;
- (c) whether the buyer knew or ought reasonably to have known of the existence and extent of the term, having regard, among other things, to any custom of the trade and any previous course of dealing between the parties; and
- (d) in the case of the supply of goods, whether the goods were manufactured, processed or adapted to the special order of the buyer.

Implied
undertakings as to title, encumbrances
and quiet possession

29.-(1) Where, in a contract for the supply of goods by a supplier to a consumer, other than a contract to which subsection (3) applies, there is-

- (a) an implied condition that, in the case of a supply by way of sale, the supplier has a right to sell the goods, and, in the case of an agreement to sell or a hire-purchase agreement, the supplier shall have a right to sell the goods at the time when the property is to pass;

(b) an implied warranty that the consumer will enjoy quiet possession of the goods except so far as it may lawfully be disturbed by the supplier or by another person who is entitled to the benefit of any charge or encumbrance disclosed or known to the consumer before the contract is made; and

(c) in the case of a contract for the supply of goods under which the property is to pass or may pass to the consumer-implied warranty that the goods are free, and will remain free until the time when the property passes, from any charge or encumbrance not disclosed or known to the consumer before the contract is made.

(2) A person is not, in relation to a contract for the supply of goods in breach of the implied warranty referred to in paragraph (c) of subsection (1) by reason only of the existence of a floating charge over assets of the supplier unless and until the charge becomes fixed and enforceable by the person to whom the charge is given.

(3) In a contract for the supply of goods by the supplier to a consumer in the case of which there appears from the contract or is to be inferred from the circumstances of the contract an intention that the supplier should transfer only such title as he or a third person may have, there is-

(a) an implied warranty that all charges of encumbrances known to the supplier and not known to the consumer have been disclosed to the consumer before the contract is made; and

(b) an implied warranty that-

(i) the supplier;

(ii) in a case where the parties to the contract intend that the supplier should transfer only such title as a third

- person may have, that person; and
- (iii) any one claiming through or under the supplier or that third person otherwise than under a charge or encumbrance disclosed or known to the consumer before the contract is made,

Shall not disturb the consumer's quiet possession of the goods.

Supply by
description

30.-(1) Where there is a contract for the supply, otherwise than by way of sale, by auction, by a person in the course of a business of goods to a consumer by description, there is an implied condition that goods will correspond with the description, and, if the supply is by reference to a sample as well as by description, it is not sufficient that the bulk of the goods corresponds with the sample if the goods do not also correspond with the description.

(2) A supply of goods is not prevented from being a supply by description for the purposes of subsection (1) by reason only that, being exposed for sale or hire, they are selected by the consumer.

Implied
undertaking as to quality and fitness

31.-(1) Where a person supplies, otherwise than by way of sale, by auction, goods to a consumer in the course of a business, there is an implied condition that the goods supplied under the contract for the supply of the goods are of merchantable quality, except that there is no such condition by virtue only of this section-

- (a) as regards to defects specifically drawn to the consumer's attention before the contract is made; or
- (b) where the consumer examines the goods before the contract is made, as regards to defects which that examination ought to reveal.

(2) Where a person supplies otherwise than by way of sale, by auction goods to a consumer in the course of a business and the consumer, expressly or by

implication, makes known to the person by whom any antecedent negotiations are conducted any particular purpose for which the goods are being acquired, there is an implied condition that the goods supplied under the contract for the supply of the goods are reasonably fit for that purpose, whether or not that is a purpose for which such goods are commonly supplied, except where the circumstances show that the consumer does not rely, or that it is unreasonable for him to rely, on the skill or judgment of that person.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) shall apply to a contract for the supply of goods made by a person who, in the course of a business, is acting as agent for another person as they apply to a contract for the supply of goods made by a person in the course of a business, except where that person is not supplying in the course of a business and either the consumer knows that fact or reasonable steps are taken to bring it to the notice of the consumer before the contract is made.

sample

32. Where in a contract for the supply, otherwise than by way of supply by sale, by auction, by a person in the course of a business of goods to a consumer there is a term in the contract, expressed or implied, to the effect that the goods are supplied by reference to a sample-

- (a) there is an implied condition that the bulk will correspond with the sample in quality;
- (b) there is an implied condition that the consumer will have a reasonable opportunity of comparing the bulk with the sample; and
- (c) there is an implied condition that the goods will be free from any defect, rendering them unmerchantable, that would not be apparent on reasonable examination of the sample.

Liability for loss or damage
from breach of certain contracts
Act No.
13 of 2024

33.-(1) Where-

- (a) a person, in this section referred to as the 'supplier' supplies goods, or causes goods to be supplied, to a linked certain credit provider

ss. 2 and 13

of the supplier and a consumer enters into a contract with the linked credit provider for the provision of credit in respect of the supply by way of sale, lease, hire or hire purchase of the goods to the consumer; or

- (b) a consumer enters into a contract with a linked credit provider of a supplier for the provisions of credit in respect of the supply by the supplier of goods or services, or goods and services, to the consumer;

and the consumer suffers loss or damage as a result of misrepresentation, breach of contract, or failure of consideration in relation to the contract, or as a result of a breach of a condition that is implied in the contract by virtue of sections 30, 31 and 32 or of a warranty that is implied in the contract by virtue of section 34, the supplier and the linked credit provider are, subject to this section; jointly and severally liable to the consumer for the amount of the loss or damage, and the consumer may recover that amount by action in accordance with this section in a Commission.

(2) Where-

- (a) a supplier supplies goods, or causes goods to be supplied, to a credit provider who is not a linked credit provider of the supplier;
- (b) a consumer enters into a contract with the credit provider for the provision of credit in respect of the supply by way of sale, lease, hire or hire-purchase of the goods to the consumer;
- (c) antecedent negotiations in relation to the contract were conducted with the consumer by or on behalf of the supplier; and
- (d) the credit provider did not take physical possession of the goods before they were delivered to the consumer,

or where a consumer enters into a contract with a credit provider for the provision of credit in respect of the supply of services to the consumer by a supplier of which the credit provider is not a linked credit provider, and the consumer suffers loss or damage as a result of a breach of a condition that is implied in the contract by virtue of sections 30, 31 and 32 or of a warranty that is implied in the contract by virtue of section 34, the credit provider is not under any liability to the consumer for the amount of the loss or damage but the consumer may recover that amount by action in a Commission against the supplier.

(3) A linked credit provider of a particular supplier is not liable to a consumer by virtue of subsection (1) in proceedings arising under that subsection if the credit provider establishes-

(a) that the credit provided by the credit provider to the consumer was the result of an approach made to the credit provider by the consumer that was not induced by the supplier;

(b) where the proceedings relate to the supply by way of lease, hire or hire-purchase of goods by the linked credit provider to the consumer, that-

(i) after due inquiry before becoming a linked credit provider of the supplier, the credit provider was satisfied that the reputation of the supplier in respect of the suppliers financial standing and business conduct was good; and

(ii) after becoming a linked credit provider of the supplier the credit provider had not had cause to suspect that-

(aa) the consumer might be entitled to recover an amount of loss or damage suffered as a result of misrepresentation or breach of a condition or warranty referred to in subsection (1); and

(bb) the supplier might be unable to meet the liabilities of the

- supplier liabilities as and when they fall due;
- (c) where the proceedings relate to a contract of sale with respect to which a tied loan contract applies, that-
 - (i) after due inquiry before becoming a linked credit provider of the supplier, the credit provider was satisfied that the reputation of the supplier in respect of the supplier's financial standing and business conduct was good; and
 - (ii) after becoming a linked credit provider of the supplier, but before the tied loan contract was entered into, the linked credit provider had not had cause to suspect that-
 - (aa) the consumer might, if the contract was entered into, be entitled to recover an amount of loss or damage suffered as result of misrepresentation, breach of contract or failure of consideration in relation to the contract or as a result of a breach of subsection (1);
and
 - (bb) the supplier might be unable to meet the liabilities of the suppliers as and when they fall due; or
- (d) where the proceedings relate to a contract of sale with respect to which a tied continuing credit contract entered into by the linked credit provider applies, that, having regard to-
 - (i) the nature and volume of business carried on by the linked credit provider; and
 - (ii) such other matters as appear to be relevant in the circumstances of the case,

the linked credit provider, before becoming aware of the contract of sale or of proposals for the making of the contract of sale, whichever the linked credit provider first became aware of, had no cause to suspect that a person entering into such a contract with the supplier might be entitled to claim damages against, or recover a sum of money from, the supplier for misrepresentation, breach of contract, failure of consideration, breach of a condition or breach of a warranty as referred to in subsection (1).

(4) Subject to the provisions of subsection (5), in any proceedings in relation to a contract referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (1) in which a credit provider claims damages or an amount of money from a consumer, the consumer may set up the liability of the credit provider under subsection (1) in diminution or extinction of the consumers liability.

(5) Subject to the provisions of subsection (6), a consumer may not, in respect of a liability for which, by reason of this section, a supplier and a linked credit provider are jointly and severally liable-

- (a) bring proceedings to recover an amount of loss or damage from the credit provider; or
- (b) where proceedings are brought against the consumer by the credit provider, make a counter claim or exercise the right conferred by subsection (4) against the credit provider,

unless the consumer brings the action against the supplier and the credit provider jointly or, in the case of a counter claim or right conferred by subsection (4), claims in the proceedings against the supplier in respect of the liability by third party proceedings or otherwise.

(6) Subsections (5), (8)(a) and (9)(a) do not apply in relation to proceedings where-

- (a) the supplier has been dissolved or is commenced to be wound up; or
- (b) in the opinion of the Commission in which the proceedings are taken, it is not reasonably likely that an order obtained against the supplier would be satisfied and the Commission has, on the application of the consumer, declared that subsections (5), (8)(a) and (9)(a) do not apply in relation to the proceedings.

(7) The liability of a linked credit provider to a consumer for damages or a sum of money in respect of a contract referred to in subsection (1) does not exceed the sum of-

- (a) the amount financed under the tied loan contract, tied continuing credit contract, lease contract, contract of hire or contract of hire purchase;
- (b) the amount of interest, if any or damages in the nature of interest allowed or awarded against the linked credit provider by the Commission; and
- (c) the amount of costs, if any, awarded by the Commission against the linked credit provider or supplier or both.

(8) Where in proceedings arising under subsection (1), an order is given against a supplier and a linked credit provider, an order-

- (a) shall not be enforced against the linked credit provider unless a written demand made on the supplier for satisfaction of an order has remained unsatisfied for not less than thirty days; and
- (b) may be enforced against the linked credit provider only to the extent of-
 - (i) the amount calculated in accordance with subsection (7); or
 - (ii) so much of an order debt as has not been satisfied by the supplier, whichever is the lesser.

(9) Unless the linked credit provider and supplier otherwise agree, the supplier is liable to the linked credit provider for the amount of a loss suffered by the linked credit provider, being an amount not exceeding the maximum amount of the linked credit provider's liability under subsection (7) and, unless the Commission otherwise determines, the amount of costs, if any, reasonably incurred by the linked credit provider in defending the proceedings by reason of which the liability was incurred.

(10) Notwithstanding any other law, where in proceedings arising under subsection (1), an order is given against a supplier and a linked credit provider or against a linked credit provider for an amount of loss or damage, the Commission in which the proceedings are taken shall, on the application of the consumer, unless good cause is shown to the contrary, award interest to the consumer against the supplier and credit provider or against the credit provider, as the case may be, upon the whole or part of the amount, from the time when the consumer became entitled to recover the amount until the date on which an order is given, at whichever of the following rates is greater:

- (a) where the amount payable by the consumer to the credit provider for the reason of obtaining credit in connection with the goods or services to which the proceedings relate may be calculated at a percentage rate per annum, that rate or, if more than one such rate may be calculated, the lower or lowest of those rates; or
- (b) eight percent or such other rate as is prescribed.

(11) In determining whether good cause is shown against awarding interest under subsection (10) on the whole or part of an amount of loss or damage, the Commission shall take into account any payment made into Commission by the supplier or credit provider.

(12) Where an order given in proceedings arising under subsection (1) is enforced against a linked credit provider of a particular supplier, the credit provider is subrogated to the extent of an order so enforced to any rights that the consumer would have had but for an order against the supplier or any other person.

(13) In this section-

“credit provider” means a person, providing, or proposing to provide, in the course of a business carried on by him, credit to consumers in relation to the acquisition of goods or services;

“linked credit provider”, in relation to a supplier, means a credit provider-

(a) with whom the supplier has a contract, arrangement or understanding relating to-

- (i) the supply to the supplier of goods in which the supplier deals;
- (ii) the business carried on by the supplier of supplying goods or services; or
- (iii) the provision to persons to whom goods or services are supplied by the supplier of credit in respect of payment for those goods or services;

(b) to whom the supplier, by arrangement with the credit provider, regularly refers persons for the purpose of obtaining credit;

(c) whose forms of contract or forms of application or offers for credit are, by arrangement with the credit provider, made available to persons by the supplier; or

(d) with whom the supplier has a contract, arrangement or understanding under which contracts or applications or offers for credit from the credit provider may be signed by persons at premises of the supplier;

“tied continuing credit contract” means a continuing credit contract under which a credit provider provides credit in respect of the payment by a consumer for goods or services supplied by a supplier in relation to whom the credit provider is a linked credit provider; and

“tied loan contract” means a loan contract entered into between a credit provider and a consumer where-

- (a) the credit provider knows or ought reasonably to know that the consumer enters into the loan contract wholly or partly for the purposes of payment for goods or services supplied by a supplier; and
- (b) at the time the loan contract is entered into the credit provider as a linked credit provider of the supplier.

Warranties in relation to supply of services

34.-(1) In every contract for the supply by a supplier in the course of a business of services to a consumer there is an implied warranty that the services shall be rendered with due care and skill and that any materials supplied in connection on or with those services shall be reasonably fit for the purpose for which are supplied.

(2) Where a person supplies services, other than services of a professional nature provided by a qualified architect or engineer, to a consumer in the course of a business and the consumer, expressly or by implication, makes known to him any particular purpose for which the services are required or the result that he desires the services to achieve, there is an implied warranty that the services supplied under the contract for the supply of the services and any materials supplied in connection with those services shall be reasonably fit or are of such a nature and quality that they, for that purpose, might reasonably be expected to achieve that result, except where the circumstances show that the consumer does not rely, or that it is unreasonable for him to rely on, the person's skill or judgment.

(3) A reference in this section to services does not include a reference to services that are, or are to be, provided, granted or conferred under-

- (a) a contract for or in relation to the transportation or storage of goods for the purposes of a business, trade, profession or occupation carried on or engaged in by the person for whom the goods are transported or

Rescission of contracts

- stored; or
- (b) a contract of insurance.

35.-(1) Where-

- (a) a person supplies goods to a consumer in the course of a business; and
- (b) there is a breach of a condition that is, by virtue of a provision in this Part, implied in the contract for the supply of the goods, the consumer is, subject to this section, entitled to rescind the contract by-

- (i) causing to be served on the supplier a notice in writing signed by him giving particulars of the breach; or
- (ii) causing the goods to be returned to the supplier and giving to him either orally or in writing, particulars of the breach.

(2) Where a consumer purports to rescind under this section a contract for the supply of goods by a person, the purported rescission does not have any effect where-

- (a) the notice is not served or the goods are not returned within a reasonable time after the consumer has had a reasonable opportunity of inspecting the goods;
- (b) in the case of a rescission effected by services of a notice after the delivery of the goods to the consumer but before the notice is served-
 - (i) the goods were disposed of by the consumer, were lost, or were destroyed otherwise than by reason of a defect in the goods;
 - (ii) the consumer caused the goods to become unmerchantable or failed to take reasonable steps to prevent the goods from becoming unmerchantable; or
 - (iii) the goods were damaged by abnormal use; or

(c) in the case of a rescission effected by return of the goods, while the goods were in the possession of the consumer-

- (i) the consumer caused the goods to become unmerchantable or failed to take reasonable steps to prevent the goods from becoming unmerchantable; or
- (ii) the goods were damaged by abnormal use.

(3) Where a contract for the supply of goods by any person to a consumer has been rescinded in accordance with this section-

- (a) where the property in the goods had passed to the consumer before the notice of rescission was served on, or the goods were returned to him, the property in the goods re-vests in the supplier upon the service of the notice or the return of the goods; and
- (b) the consumer may recover from the supplier as a debt, the amount or value of any consideration paid or provided by him for the goods.

(4) The right of rescission conferred by this section is in addition to, and not in derogation of, any other right or remedy under this Act or any other Act.

Standard form
contracts

36. Whenever the terms and conditions which are to govern any consumer transaction are to be included, whether wholly or in part, in a standard form contract the terms and conditions shall be registered with the Commission in accordance with the regulations under this Act.

PART VII MANUFACTURER'S OBLIGATIONS

Definitions

37.-(1) In this Part-“express warranty” in relation to goods, means an undertaking, assertion or representation in relation to-

- (a) the quality, performance or characteristics of the goods;
- (b) the provision of services that are or may at any time be required in respect of the goods;
- (c) the supply of parts that are or may at any time be required for the goods; or
- (d) the future availability of identical goods, or of goods constituting or forming part of a set of which the goods in relation to which the undertaking, assertion or representation is given or made form part,

given or made in connection with the supply of the goods or in connection with the goods or in connection with the promotion by any means of the supply or use of the goods, the natural tendency of which is to induce persons to acquire the goods; and “manufactured” includes grown, extracted, produced, processed and assembled.

(2) For the purposes of this Part, where a person makes a representation with respect to any future matter, including doing of or the refusing to do, any act, and the person does not have reasonable grounds for making the representation, the representation shall be taken to be misleading.

(3) For the purposes of the application of subsection (1) in relation to a proceeding concerning a representation made by a person with respect to any future matter, the person shall, unless he adduces evidence to the contrary, be deemed not to have had reasonable grounds for making the representation.

(4) Subsection (1) shall be deemed not to limit by implication the meaning of a reference in this Part to a misleading representation, a representation that is misleading in a material particular or conduct that is misleading or is likely or liable to mislead.

(5) In this Part-

- (a) a reference to goods shall, unless the contrary intention appears, be read as a reference to goods of a kind ordinarily acquired for personal, domestic or household use or consumption;

- (b) a reference to a person who acquires goods from a consumer does not include a reference to a person who acquires goods for the purpose of re-supply;
- (c) a reference to the quality of goods includes a reference to the state or condition of the goods; and
- (d) a reference to antecedent negotiations in relation to the acquisition of goods by a consumer shall be read as a reference to any negotiations or arrangements conducted or made with the consumer by another person in the course of business carried on by the other person whereby the consumer was induced to acquire the goods or which otherwise promoted the acquisition of the goods by the consumer.

(6) A person shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Part, to be the manufacturer of goods, where-

- (a) the person holds himself out to the public as the manufacturer of those goods;
- (b) the person supplies those goods and causes or permits his name, a name by which he carries on business or his brand or mark to be applied to those goods; or
- (c) the person causes or permits another person, in connection with the supply or possible supply of those goods by that other person, or in connection with the promotion by that other person by any means of the supply or use of those goods, to hold out the person to the public as the manufacturer of the goods.

(7) A person shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Part, to be the manufacturer of goods if he imports into the country goods of which he is not the manufacturer provided that at the time of the importation the manufacturer of the goods does not have a place of business in the country.

(8) For the purposes of paragraph (b) of subsection (6)-

(a) a name, brand or mark shall be deemed to be applied to goods where-

(i) it is woven in, impressed on, worked into or annexed or affixed to the goods; or

(ii) it is applied to a covering, label, reel or thing in or with which the goods are supplied; and

(b) where a person's name in which he carries on business or his brand or mark is applied to goods, it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is established, that he caused or permitted the name brand or mark to be applied to the goods.

(9) The reference in subsection (8) to a covering includes a reference to a stopper, glass, bottle, vessel, box, capsule, case, frame or wrapper and the reference in that subsection to a label includes a reference to a brand or ticket.

(10) Where goods are imported into the country on behalf of a person, such person shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Part, to have imported the goods into the country.

(11) For the purposes of this Part goods shall be taken to be supplied to a consumer notwithstanding that at the time of the supply they are affixed to land or premises.

Actions in respect of unsuitable goods
Act No.
13 of 2024
s. 2

38.-(1) Where-

(a) a person, supplies goods manufactured by him to another person who acquires the goods for resupply;

(b) a person, whether or not the person who acquired the goods from another person

- supplies the goods otherwise than by way of sale by auction, to a consumer;
- (c) the goods are acquired by the consumer for a particular purpose that was, expressly or by implication, made known to the person, either directly, or through the person from whom the consumer acquired the goods or a person by whom any antecedent negotiations in connection with the acquisition of the goods were conducted;
 - (d) the goods are not reasonably fit for that purpose, whether or not that is a purpose for which such goods are commonly supplied; and
 - (e) the consumer or a person who acquires the goods from, or derives title to the goods through or under, the consumer suffers loss or damage by reason that the goods are not reasonably fit for that purpose,
- he has little to compensate the consumer or that other person for the loss or damage and the consumer or that other person may recover the amount of the compensation by action against him in a Commission.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply-
- (a) where the goods are not reasonably fit for the purpose referred to in that subsection by reason of-
 - (i) an act or default of any person not being the person or a servant or agent of the person; or
 - (ii) a cause independent of human control; occurring after the goods have left the control of the person; or
 - (b) where the circumstances show that the consumer did not rely, or that it was unreasonable for the consumer to rely, on the skill or judgment of the person.

Actions in

39.-(1) Where-

respect of false descriptions
Act No.
13 of 2024
s. 2

- (a) a person supplies goods manufactured by the person to another person who acquires the goods for resupply;
- (b) a person, whether or not the person who acquired the goods from the person supplies the goods otherwise than by way of sale by auction to a consumer by description;
- (c) the goods do not correspond with the description; and
- (d) the consumer or a person who acquires the goods from, or derives title to the goods through or under, suffers loss or damage by reason that the goods do not correspond with the description,

he is liable to compensate the consumer or that other person for the loss or damage and the consumer or that other person may recover the amount of the compensation by action against him in a Commission.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the goods do not correspond with the description referred to in that subsection by reason of-

- (a) an act or default of a person;
- (b) a cause independent of human control, occurring after the goods have left the control of that person.

(3) A person is not liable to compensate a person for loss or damage suffered by the person by reason that goods do not correspond with a description unless the description was applied to the goods-

- (a) by or on behalf of him; or
- (b) with his consent, whether express or implied.

(4) Where the goods referred to in subsection (1) are supplied to the consumer by reference to a sample as well as by description, it is not a defense to an action under this section that the bulk of the goods corresponds with the sample if the goods do not also correspond with the description.

(5) A supply of goods is not prevented from being a supply by description for the purposes of subsection (1)

by reason only that, being exposed for sale or hire, they are selected by the consumer.

Actions in respect of goods
of unmerchantable quality
Act No.
13 of 2024
s. 2

40.-(1) Where-

- (a) a person supplies goods manufactured by him to another person who acquires the goods for resupply;
- (b) a person, whether or not the person acquired the goods from him supplies the goods otherwise than by way of sale by auction to a consumer;
- (c) the goods are not of merchantable quality; and
- (d) the consumer or a person who acquires the goods from, or derives title to the goods through or under, the consumer suffers loss or damage by reason that the goods are not of merchantable quality,

such person is liable to compensate the consumer or that other person for the loss or damage and the consumer or that other person may recover the amount of the compensation by action against him in a Commission.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply-

- (a) where the goods are not of merchantable quality by reason of-
 - (i) an act or default of any person; or
 - (ii) a cause independent of human control, occurring after the goods have left the control of the person;
- (b) as regards defects specifically drawn to the consumer's attention before the making of the contract for the supply of the goods to the consumer; or
- (c) where the consumer examines the goods before that contract is made, as regards defects that the examination ought to reveal.

(3) Goods of any kind are of merchantable quality within the meaning of this section if they are as fit for the purpose or purposes for which goods of that kind are commonly bought as it is reasonable to expect having regard to-

- (a) any description applied to the goods by him;
- (b) the price received by him for the goods, where relevant; and
- (c) all the other relevant circumstances.

Actions in respect of non-correspondence with samples etc
Act No.
13 of 2024
s. 2

41.-(1) Where-

- (a) a person supplies goods manufactured by him to another person who acquires the goods for resupply;
- (b) a person whether or not the person who acquired the goods from the other person supplies the goods otherwise than by way of sale by auction to a consumer;
- (c) goods are supplied to the consumer by reference to a sample;
- (d) the bulk of the goods does not correspond with the sample in quality or the goods have a defect, rendering them unmerchantable, that is not, or would not be, apparent on reasonable examination of the sample; and
- (e) the consumer or a person who acquires the goods from, or derives title to the goods through or under, the consumer suffers loss or damage by reason that the bulk does not correspond with the sample in quality or by reason that the goods have that defect,

he is liable to compensate the consumer or that other person for the loss or damage and the consumer or that other person may recover the amount of the loss or damage by action against him in a Commission.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply where-

- (a) the sample is not supplied by the person;
- (b) the supply by sample is made without the express or implied concurrence of the person;
- or
- (c) the failure of the bulk of the goods to correspond with the sample in quality or the existence of the defect is due to-

- (i) default of any person or a cause independent of human control, occurring after the goods have left the control of the person; or
- (ii) other circumstances that were beyond the control of him and that he could not reasonably be expected to have foreseen.

Actions in respect of failure to provide facilities for repairs or parts
Act No.
13 of 2024
s. 2

42.-(1) Where-

- (a) a person supplies goods otherwise than by way of sale by auction, manufactured by him to a consumer;
- (b) a person supplies goods manufactured by him to another person who acquires the goods for resupply and a person, whether or not the person who acquired the goods from him supplies the goods otherwise than by way of sale by auction, to a consumer; and
- (c) at a time, in this section referred to as the “relevant time”, after the acquisition of the goods by the consumer-
 - (i) the goods required to be repaired but facilities for their repair are not reasonably available to the consumer or a person who acquires the goods from or derives title to the goods through or under, the consumer; or
 - (ii) a part is required for the goods but the part is not reasonably available to the consumer or a person who acquires the goods from, or derives title to the goods through or under, the consumer;
- (d) the person acted unreasonably in failing to ensure that facilities for the repair of the goods were, or that the part was, reasonably available to the consumer or that other person at the relevant time; and
- (e) the consumer or that other person suffers loss or damage by reason of the failure of the supplier to ensure that facilities for the repair of goods were, or that the part was, reasonably available to the consumer or that other person at the relevant time, he is liable to compensate the consumer or that other person for the loss or damage and the consumer or that other person may recover the amount of the compensation by action against him in a Commission.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply where the person took reasonable action to ensure that the consumer acquiring the goods would be given notice at or before the time when he acquired the goods that-

- (a) he did not promise that facilities for the repair of the goods, or that parts for the goods, would be available; or
- (b) he did not promise that facilities for the repair of the goods, or that parts for the goods, would be available after a specified period, being a period that expired before the relevant time.

(3) Where the person took reasonable action to ensure that the consumer acquiring the goods would be given notice at or before the time when he acquired the goods that he did not promise that-

- (a) facilities for the repair of the goods, being facilities of a kind specified in the notice, would be available;
- (b) parts for the goods, being parts of a kind specified in the notice, would be available; or
- (c) facilities for the repair of the goods would be available at, or parts for the goods would be available from, a place or places specified in the notice,

he is not liable to compensate the consumer or a person who acquires the goods from, or derives title to the goods through or under, the consumer for loss or damage suffered by the consumer or that other person by reason of the failure of person to ensure that, facilities or parts of the kind specified in the notice, were available, or that facilities for the repair of the goods were available at, or parts for the goods were available from a place or places specified in the notice, as the case may be.

(4) In determining whether a person acted unreasonably in failing to ensure that facilities for the repair of goods were, or that a part was, reasonably available to a person at the relevant time, a Commission shall have regard to all the circumstances of the case, and in particular to the existence, at the relevant time, of circumstances that prevented those facilities or that part being so available, being circumstances beyond the control of the person.

Actions in respect of non-compliance with express warranty
Act No.
13 of 2024
s. 2

43.-(1) Where-

- (a) a person supplies goods, otherwise than by way of sale by auction manufactured by him to a consumer;
- (b) a person supplies goods manufactured by him to another person who acquires the goods for re-supply and a person, whether or not the person acquired the goods from him, supplies the goods otherwise than by way of sale by auction, to a consumer;
- (c) a person fails to comply with an express warranty given or made by him in relation to the goods; and
- (d) the consumer who acquires the goods from him suffers loss or damage by reason of the failure,

he is liable to compensate the consumer for the loss or damage and the consumer may recover the amount of the compensation by action against him in a Commission.

(2) For the purposes of any action instituted by a person against a person under this section, where-

- (a) an undertaking, assertion or representation was given or made in connection with the supply of goods or in connection with the promotion by any means of the supply or use of goods; and

(b) the undertaking, assertion or representation would, if it had been given or made by him or a person acting on his behalf, have constituted an express warranty in relation to the goods, it shall be presumed that the undertaking, assertion or representation was given or made by him or a person acting on his behalf unless he proves that, he did not give or make, and did not cause or permit the giving or making of the undertaking, assertion or representation.

Right of seller to recover against manufacturer or importer
Act No.
13 of 2024
s. 2

44. Where-

- (a) a person in this section referred to as the “seller”, is under a liability to another person in respect of loss or damage suffered by the consumer as a result of a breach of a condition or warranty implied by a provision of this Part in a contract for the supply of goods, whether or not the goods are of a kind ordinarily acquired for personal, domestic or household use or consumption by the seller to the consumer; and
- (b) a third person, in this section referred to as the “manufacturer”-
- (i) is liable to compensate the consumer in respect of the same loss or damage by reason of the provisions of this Part; or
 - (ii) in a case where the goods referred to in paragraph (a) are not of a kind ordinarily acquired for personal, domestic or household use or consumption would, if the provisions of sections 38, 39, 40 and 41 applied in relation to those goods, be liable to compensate the consumer in respect of the same loss or damage by reason of any of those provisions, the manufacturer is liable to indemnify the seller in respect of the liability of the seller to the consumer and the seller may, in respect of the manufacturer's liability to indemnify the seller, institute an action against the manufacturer in a Commission for such legal or equitable relief as the seller could have obtained if the liability of the manufacturer to indemnify the seller had arisen under a contract of indemnity made between the manufacturer and the seller.

Time for commencing actions

45.-(1) Subject to this section, an action under a provision of this Part may be commenced at any time within three years after the day on which the cause of action accrued.

(2) For the purposes of this section, a cause of action shall be deemed to have accrued-

(a) in the case of an action other than an action under section 44, on the day on which the consumer or a person who acquired the goods from or derived title to the goods through or under, consumer first became aware, or ought reasonably to have become aware-

- (i) in the case of an action under section 44, that the goods were not reasonably fit for the purpose referred to in that section;
- (ii) in the case of an action under section 39, that the goods did not correspond with the description referred to in that section;
- (iii) in the case of an action under section 40, that the goods were not of merchantable quality;
- (iv) in the case of an action under section 41, that the bulk of the goods did not correspond with the sample in quality or the goods had the defect referred to in the section;
- (v) in the case of an action under section 42, that the goods required to be

- repaired or that the part was required for the goods, as the case may be; or
- (vi) in the case of an action under section 43, of the failure of the corporation to comply with the express warranty referred to in that section; or
 - (b) in the case of an action under section 44, on-
 - (i) the day or the first day, as the case may be, on which the seller referred to in that section made a payment in respect of, or otherwise discharged in whole or in part, the liability of that seller to the consumer or that other person; or
 - (ii) the day on which a proceeding was instituted by the consumer or that other person against that seller in respect of that liability or, if more than one such proceeding was instituted, the day on which the first such proceeding was instituted, whichever was the earlier.

(3) In an action under a provision of this Part, it is a defense if the defendant proves that the action was not commenced within ten years after the time of the first supply to consumer of the goods to which the action relates.

Application of this Part not to be excluded or modified

46.-(1) Any term of a contract (including a term that is not set out in the contract but is incorporated in the contract by another term of the contract) that purports to exclude, restrict or modify, or has the effect of excluding, restricting or modifying, any liability of a person to compensate or indemnify another person that may arise under this Part, is void.

(2) A term of a contract shall not be taken to exclude, restrict or modify the application of a provisions of this Part unless the term does so expressly or is inconsistent with that provision.

(3) Nothing in this section shall apply to a term of a contract referred to in subsection (4) of section 47.

Limitation in certain circumstances of liability of manufacturer to seller
Act No.
13 of 2024
s. 2

47.-(1) Notwithstanding section 44, in the case of goods other than goods of a kind ordinarily acquired for personal, domestic or household use or consumption, the liability under that section of a manufacturer to a seller is limited to a liability to pay to the seller an amount equal to-

- (a) the costs of replacing the goods;
- (b) the costs of obtaining equivalent goods; or
- (c) the costs of having the goods repaired;

whichever is the lowest amount.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply in relation to particular goods if the seller established that it is not fair or reasonable for the liability of the manufacturer in respect of those goods to be limited as mentioned in subsection (1).

(3) In determining for the purposes of subsection (2) whether or not it is fair or reasonable for the liability of a manufacturer to a seller in respect of goods to be limited as mentioned in subsection (1), a Commission shall have regard to all the circumstances of the case and, in particular, to-

- (a) the availability of suitable alternative sources of supply of the goods;
- (b) the availability of equivalent goods; and
- (c) whether the goods were manufactured, processed or adapted to the special order of the seller.

(4) A term of a contract between the manufacturer and the seller imposing on the manufacturer a greater liability than the liability mentioned in subsection (1), shall be subject to this section.

(5) In this section, the expressions “manufacturer” and “seller” have the same respective meanings as provided for under section 44.

PART VIII
PRODUCT SAFETY AND PRODUCT INFORMATION

Warning notice to public

48.-(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Act, the Commission may publish a notice in the Gazette containing-

- (a) a statement that goods of a kind specified in the notice are under public investigation to determine whether the goods shall or may cause injury to any person; or
- (b) a warning of possible risks involved in the use of goods of a kind specified in the notice.

(2) Where an investigation referred to in subsection (1) has been completed, the Commission shall, as soon as practicable after the investigation has been completed, by notice published in the Gazette, announce the results of the investigation, and may announce in the notice whether and if so, what action is proposed to be taken in relation to the goods under this Part.

Product safety standards and unsafe goods

49.-(1) A person shall not supply goods that are intended to be used, or are of a kind likely to be used, by a consumer if the goods are of a kind-

- (a) in respect of which there is a prescribed consumer product safety standard and which do not comply with that standard;
- (b) in respect of which there is in force a notice under this section declaring the goods to be unsafe goods; or
- (c) in respect of which there is in force a notice under this section imposing a permanent ban on those goods.

(2) The regulations may, in respect of goods of a particular kind, prescribe a consumer product safety standard consisting of such requirements as to-

- (a) performance, composition, contents, methods of manufacture or processing, design, construction, finish or packaging of the goods;

- (b) testing of the goods during, or after the completion of manufacture or processing; and
- (c) the form and content of markings, warnings or instructions to accompany the goods, as are reasonably necessary to prevent or reduce risk of injury to any person.

(3) A person shall not export goods or supply goods in the country which are prohibited by subsection (1) unless the Minister has, by notice in writing given to such person, approved to export such goods.

(4) Where the Minister approves the export of goods under subsection (3), the Minister shall cause a statement setting out particulars of the approval to be laid before the National Assembly at the next meeting after the approval.

(5) Where it appears to the Minister after consultation with the Commission that, goods of a particular kind will or may cause injury to a person, the Minister may, by notice published in the Gazette, declare the goods to be unsafe, and shall forthwith impose a temporary ban on such goods.

(6) A notice and the temporary ban under subsection (5) shall remain in force until the end of three months after the publication of the notice in the Gazette unless it is revoked before the end of that period.

(7) Where-

- (a) period of three months has elapsed after the date of publication of the notice in the Gazette declaring goods to be unsafe and a temporary ban has been imposed; and
- (b) the supplier has failed to make good the defect,

the Minister may, by notice published in the Gazette, impose a permanent ban.

(8) Where-

- (a) the supplying of goods by any person constitutes a contravention of this section by reason that the goods do not comply with a prescribed consumer product safety standard;

- (b) a person suffers loss or damage by reason of a defect in, or a dangerous characteristic of the goods or by reason of not having particular information in relation to the goods; and
- (c) the person would not have suffered the loss or damage if the goods had complied with that standard, that person shall be deemed for the purposes of this Act to have suffered the loss or damage by the supplying of the goods.

(9) Where-

- (a) the supplying of goods by any person constitutes a contravention of this section by reason that there is in force a notice under this section declaring the goods to be unsafe goods or imposing a temporary or permanent ban on the goods; and
- (b) a person suffers loss or damage by reason of a defect in or a dangerous characteristic of the goods or by reason of not having particular information as to a characteristic of the goods,

that person shall be deemed for the purposes of this Act to have suffered the loss or damage by supplying of such goods.

Product
Information
Cap. 130

50.-(1) Subject to the provisions of the Standards Act, a person shall not supply goods that are intended to be used, or are of a kind likely to be used, by a consumer, being goods of a kind in respect of which a consumer product information standard has been prescribed, unless he has complied with that standard in relation to those goods.

(2) The regulations may, in respect of goods of a particular kind, prescribe a consumer product information standard consisting of such requirements as to-

- (a) the disclosure of information relating to the performance, composition, contents, methods of manufacture or processing, design, construction, finish or packaging of the goods;

and
(b) the form and manner in which that information is to be disclosed on or with the goods, as are reasonably necessary to give persons using the goods information as to the quantity, quality, nature or value of the goods.

(3) Where-

- (a) the supplying of goods by any person constitutes a contravention of this section by reason that he has not complied with a prescribed consumer product information standard in relation to the goods;
- (b) a person suffers loss or damage by reason of not having particular information in relation to the goods; and
- (c) the person would not have suffered the loss or damage if he had complied with that standard in relation to the goods,

that person shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Act, to have suffered the loss or damage by supplying such goods.

Power of Minister to declare product safety information
standards

51.-(1) The Minister may, by a notice published in the Gazette, declare that, in respect of goods of a kind specified in the notice, a particular standard, or a particular part of a standard, prepared or approved by the Bureau of Standards or by a prescribed association or body, or such a standard or part of a standard with additions or variations specified in the notice, is a consumer product safety standard for the purposes of section 49 or a consumer product information standard for the purposes of section 50.

(2) Where a notice is so published, the standard, or the part of the standard, referred to in the notice, or the standard or part of a standard so referred to with additions or variations specified in the notice, as the case may be, shall be deemed to be a prescribed consumer product safety standard for the purposes of section 49 or a prescribed consumer product information standard for the purposes of section 50.

(3) Subsection (1) shall not authorise the publication of a notice in relation to goods of a particular kind if the standard or the part of the standard referred to in the notice, or the standard or the part of the standard so referred to with additions and variations specified in the notice is inconsistent with a standard prescribed in relation to goods of that kind by regulations made for the purposes of section 49 or 50.

Copies of certain notices to be given to supplier or be published in certain
newspapers

52.-(1) Where the Commission publishes notice in the Gazette under paragraph (1) of section 48, the Commission shall, within fourteen days, either-

- (a) cause a copy of the notice to be given to each person who, to the knowledge of the Commission, supplies goods of the kind to which the notice relates; or
- (b) cause a copy of the notice to be published in a newspaper circulating in each part of the country where goods of the kind to which the notice relates are, to the knowledge of the Commission, supplied.

(2) A failure to comply with subsection (1) in relation to a notice shall not invalidate the notice.

PART IX PRODUCT RECALL

Compulsory product recall

53.-(1) Where-

- (a) any person supplies goods that are intended to be used, or are of a kind likely to be used by a consumer-
 - (i) it appears to the Minister that the goods are goods of a kind which shall or may cause injury to any person;
 - (ii) the goods are goods of a kind in respect of which there is a prescribed consumer product safety standard and

- the goods do not comply with that standard; or
- (iii) the goods are goods of a kind in relation to which there is in force a notice under subsection (5) or (7) of section 49; and
- (b) it appears to the Minister that the supplier has not taken satisfactory action to prevent the goods causing injury to any person, the Minister may, by notice published in the Gazette, require the supplier-
 - (i) to take action within the period specified in the notice to recall the goods;
 - (ii) disclose to the public, or to a class of persons specified in the notice, in the manner and within the period specified in the notice, one or more of the following:
 - (aa) the nature of a defect in, or a dangerous characteristic of the goods identified in the notice;
 - (bb) the circumstances, being circumstances identified in the notice, in which the use of the goods is dangerous; or
 - (cc) the procedures for disposing of the goods specified in the notice; or
 - (iii) to inform the public, or a class of persons specified in the notice, in the manner and within the period specified in the notice that the supplier undertakes to do whichever of the following the supplier thinks is appropriate:
 - (aa) except where the notice identifies a dangerous characteristic of the goods repair the goods;

(bb) replace the goods; or

(cc) refund to a person to whom the goods were supplied, (whether by the supplier or by another person), the price of the goods,

within the period specified in the notice.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraph (cc) of subsection (1)(iii), where the Minister, in a notice under subsection (1), requires the supplier to take action under paragraph (iii) of subsection (1), the Minister may specify in the notice that, where-

(a) the supplier chooses to refund the price of the goods; and

(b) a period of more than twelve months has elapsed since a person, (whether or not the person to whom the refund is to be made) acquired the goods from the supplier,

the amount of a refund may be reduced by the supplier by an amount attributable to the use which a person has had of the goods, being an amount calculated in a manner specified in the notice.

(3) The Minister may, by notice published in the Gazette, give directions as to the manner in which the supplier is to carry out a recall of goods required under subsection (1).

(4) Where the supplier, under subsection (1) undertakes to repair goods, the supplier shall cause the goods to be repaired so that-

(a) any defect in the goods identified in the notice under subsection (1) is remedied; and

(b) where there is a prescribed consumer product safety standard in respect of the goods, the goods comply with that standard.

(5) Where the supplier, under subsection (1), undertakes to replace goods, the supplier shall replace the goods with like goods which-

- (a) where a defect in, or a dangerous characteristic of the first mentioned goods was identified in the notice under subsection (1), do not contain that defect or have that characteristic; and
- (b) where there is a prescribed consumer product safety standard in respect of goods of that kind, comply with that standard.

(6) Where the supplier under subsection (1) undertakes to repair goods or replace goods, the cost of the repair or replacement, including any necessary transportation costs, shall be borne by the supplier.

(7) Where goods are recalled, whether voluntarily or in accordance with a requirement made by the Minister under paragraph (ii) of subsection (1), a person who has supplied any of the recalled goods to another person outside the country shall, as soon as practicable after the supply of those goods, give a notice in writing to that other person-

- (a) stating that the goods are subject to recall;
- (b) where the goods contain a defect or have a dangerous characteristic setting out the nature of that defect or characteristic; and
- (c) where the goods do not comply with a prescribed consumer product safety standard in respect of the goods, setting out the nature of the non compliance.

(8) Where a person is required under subsection (7) to give a notice in writing to another person, the first-mentioned person shall, within ten days after giving that notice, provide the Minister with a copy of that notice.

(9) A person who contravenes subsection (8), commits an offence and on conviction shall be liable -

- (a) in the case of a person not being a body corporate, to a fine of not less than fifty thousand and not exceeding one million shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months; or

- (b) in the case of a person being a body corporate, to a fine of not less than one hundred thousand shilling and not exceeding five million shillings.

Compliance
with product recall order

54. Where a notice under subsection 53(1) is in force in relation to any person, such person-

- (a) shall comply with the requirements and directions in the notice; and
- (b) shall not-
 - (i) where the notice identifies a defect in or a dangerous characteristic of the goods, supply goods of the kind to which the notice relates and which contain that defect and have that characteristic; or
 - (ii) in any other case, supply goods of the kind to which the notice relates.

Loss or damage
caused by contravention of product recall
order

55. Where-

- (a) a person contravenes the provisions of section 54 by-
 - (i) supplying goods of a kind in relation to which a notice under subsection (1) of section 53 is in force; or
 - (ii) failing to comply with the requirements of such a notice; and
- (b) a person suffers loss or damage by reason of a defect in or a dangerous characteristic of the goods or by reason of not having particular information as to characteristic of the goods, that person shall be deemed for the purposes of this Act to have suffered loss or damage by the supplying of the goods or by the failure of supplier to comply with the notice.

Notification of voluntary recall

56.-(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Act, where a person voluntarily takes action to recall goods because the goods shall or may cause injury to any person, he shall, within two days after taking that action, give a notice in writing to the Commission-

- (a) stating that the goods are subject to recall; and
- (b) setting out the nature of the defect in, or dangerous characteristics of the goods.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1), commits an offence and on conviction shall be liable-

- (a) in the case of a person not being a body corporate, to a fine of not less than fifty thousand shillings and not exceeding one million shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months; or
- (b) in the case of a person being a body corporate, to a fine of not less than one hundred thousand shillings and not exceeding five million shillings.

PART X OFFENCES, PENALTIES AND REMEDIES

Person involved
in an offence

57.-(1) A person shall not-

- (a) aid, abet, counsel or procure;
- (b) conspire with others to commit; or
- (c) be directly or indirectly knowingly concerned in, an offence against this Act by another person (in this section referred to as the “primary offence”).

(2) For the purposes of this Part, a person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is “involved” in the primary offence.

Compliance
orders and compliance
agreements
Act No.
s. 14

58.-(1) Where the Commission is satisfied that a person has committed or is likely to commit an offence against this Act it may make a compliance order under this section against that person and any person involved in the offence.

(2) A person against whom a compliance order is made commits an offence if that person fails to comply with the order.

(3) A compliance order may require a person to refrain from conduct in contravention of this Act or to take actions to comply with this Act, and shall specify the time for compliance with the order and the duration of the order.

(4) The Commission may make an interim compliance order pending a proper consideration of a matter if the Commission is of the opinion that there is an imminent danger of substantial damage to a person if a threatened or likely offence is committed or there are other good reasons for making such an order.

(5) Without limiting the generality of subsection (3), where the Commission is satisfied that a person, in this subsection referred to as the “acquirer” has acquired shares or other assets in breach of subsection (1) of section 11, the Commission may make an order-

- (a) requiring the acquirer to dispose of some or all of the shares or assets within such time as the Commission specifies in the order; or
- (b) declaring the acquisition to be void, requiring the acquirer to transfer some or all of the shares or assets back to the person from whom the acquirer acquired the shares or assets, in this subsection referred to as the “vendor” and requiring the vendor to refund to the acquirer some or all of the amounts received by the vendor in respect of the acquisition, as the Commission specifies in the order.

(6) Without limiting the generality of the provisions of subsection (3), where the Commission is satisfied that a person has committed an offence against this Act, the Commission may order that person to publish, in such manner and within such time as the Commission sees fit, such information as Director General considers appropriate relating to the offence.

(7) A compliance order shall be made in writing, specifying the grounds for making the order.

(8) The Commission may enter into an agreement in writing, referred to in this section as a “compliance agreement”, whereby a person undertakes to the Commission to refrain from conduct in contravention of this Act from a date, and for a period of time, specified in the compliance agreement or for the disposal of shares or assets and other matters referred to in subsection (5), on such terms and conditions as the Commission deems appropriate.

(9) A compliance order shall be enforceable as an order of the High Court.

(10) A copy of a compliance order or compliance agreement shall be placed on the public register and, in the case of a compliance order, a copy shall be served on the person against whom it is made.

(11) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, a copy of a compliance order or compliance agreement duly certified by the Commission shall be conclusive evidence in any judicial or quasi-judicial body of the making of the order and the grounds for making it or the making of the compliance agreement.

Compensatory orders
Act No.
13 of 2024
ss. 2 and 15

59.-(1) A person who suffers loss or damage as a result of an offence against this Act may apply to the Commission for compensatory orders under this section against the person who committed the offence and any person involved in the offence, whether or not they have been convicted of the offence.

(2) An application under subsection (1) may be made at any time within three years after the loss or damage was suffered or the applicant became aware of the offence, whichever is the later.

(3) The Commission may make orders under this section against the person who committed the offence and any person involved in the offence, in this section referred to as the “respondents”, as the Commission considers appropriate to compensate the applicant for the loss or damage suffered by the applicant or to prevent or reduce such loss or damage, including the orders in subsection (4).

(4) The orders referred to in subsection (3) are-

- (a) an order requiring the respondents to pay money;
- (b) an order requiring the respondents to supply goods or services for specified periods or on specified terms and conditions;
- (c) an order declaring void, terminating or varying a contract; and
- (d) an order requiring the respondents to pay the costs of the applicant or of a person, appearing at the hearing or producing documents.

(5) A person against whom a compensatory order is made commits an offence if that person fails to comply with the order.

(6) Orders of the Commission under this section shall be enforceable as orders of the High Court.

Offences Act Nos.
8 of 2020
s. 23
13 of 2024
s.16

60.-(1) Where a person commits an offence against this Act or is involved in such an offence, the Commission may impose on that person a fine of not less than five percent but not exceeding ten percent of his annual turnover which has a source in Mainland Tanzania.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 58 and 59, the Commission may impose the following fine against a person who commits an offence under Parts VI and VII:

- (a) in case of a body corporate, a fine of not less than thirty million shillings but not exceeding fifty million shillings or 3 percent of his annual turnover in the preceding year, whichever is greater; and
- (b) in case of a natural person, a fine of not less than ten million shillings but not exceeding thirty million shillings or 1.5 percent of his annual turnover in the preceding year, whichever is greater.

(3) Where the Commission is satisfied that a monetary value can reasonably be placed on the damage including loss of income suffered by a person as a result of an offence against this Act, the convicted person shall, in addition to any other penalty which may be imposed, be liable to a fine of two times such monetary value, which the Commission shall order to be paid to the person suffering the damage.

(4) Where a person charged with an offence under this Act is a body corporate, every person who, at the time of the commission of the offence, was a director, manager or officer of the body corporate may be charged jointly in the same proceedings with such body corporate and where the body corporate is convicted of the offence, every such director, manager or officer of the body corporate shall be deemed to be guilty of that offence unless he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence.

(5) For the purposes of this section, any partner of a firm shall be jointly and severally liable for the acts or omissions of any other partner of the same firm, done or omitted in the course of the firm's business.

(6) A person who contravenes section 15 is not liable to fines under this section but may be subject to compliance orders under section 58 and compensatory orders under section 59.

(7) A person who breaches a condition or warranty implied under Part VI or a manufacturers obligation under Part VII is not liable to fines under this section.

PART XI APPEALS TO THE FAIR COMPETITION TRIBUNAL

Appeals against decisions of Commission
Act No.
13 of 2024
s. 17

61.-(1) A person that has a pecuniary and material grievance arising from a decision of the Commission-

(a) to grant or refuse to grant an exemption under section 12 or 13;

(b) to make or not to make a compliance order under section 58; or

(c) to make or not to make a compensatory order under section 59, may appeal to the Tribunal for review of the decision within twenty-eight days after notification or publication of the decision.

(2) An appeal under subsection (1) shall be by way of a rehearing.

(3) A person that has a pecuniary and material grievance arising from a decision of the Commission other than a decision referred to in subsection (1) may appeal to the Tribunal for review of the decision within twenty eight days after the notification or publication of the decision.

(4) The grounds for an appeal under subsection (3) shall be that-

- (a) the decision made was not based on evidence produced;
- (b) there was an error in law;
- (c) the procedures and other statutory requirements applicable to the Commission were not complied with and non-compliance materially affected the determination; or
- (d) the Commission did not have power to make the determination.

(5) On an appeal under this section, the Tribunal shall make a determination affirming, setting aside or varying the decision of the Commission or it may direct the Commission to reconsider the matter or specified parts of the matter to which the appeal relates.

(6) In reconsidering a matter referred back to it under subsection (5), the Commission shall have regard to the Tribunal's reasons for giving the direction.

(7) For the purposes of an appeal under this section, the Tribunal-

- (a) may perform all the functions and exercise all the powers of the Commission; and
- (b) may make such orders as to the payment of any person's costs of the review as it deems appropriate.

(8) A person who is aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal under this section may, within thirty days from the date of the decision, appeal to the Court of Appeal.

PART XII FAIR COMPETITION COMMISSION

(4) The Commission shall be entitled to participate in the proceedings of courts, tribunals, regulatory authorities, government inquiries, commissions, committees and working groups for the purpose of observing the proceedings and making representations on matters relevant to the Commission's functions.

Advice to Commission
Act No.
3 of 2010
s. 185

66. Where, in the course of performing its functions under this Act, the Commission encounters any matter related to electronic or postal communications as those terms are defined in the Electronic and Postal

Cap. 306 Communications Act, it shall request the written advice of the Tanzania Communications Regulatory Authority on such matter and, upon receiving such request, the Tanzania Communication Regulatory Authority shall have the power to provide the Commission with such advice.

[s. 65(5)]

Conflicts of interest

67.-(1) A member or employee of the Commission shall be considered to have a conflict of interest for the purposes of this Act if he acquires any pecuniary or other interest that could conflict with the proper performance of his duties as a member or employee of the Commission.

(2) Where at any time a member of the Commission has a conflict of interest in relation to-

- (a) any matter before the Commission for consideration or determination; or
- (b) any matter the Commission could reasonably expect might come before it for consideration or determination, the member shall immediately disclose the conflict of interest to the other members of the Commission and refrain from taking part, or any further part, in the consideration or determination of the matter.

(3) Where the Commission becomes aware that a member has a conflict of interest in relation to any matter before the Commission, the Commission shall direct the member to refrain from taking part, or taking any further part, in the consideration or determination of the matter.

(4) Where the Chairman has a conflict of interest he shall, in addition to complying with the other provisions of this section, disclose the conflict that exist to the Minister in writing.

(5) Upon the Commission becoming aware of any conflict of interest, it shall make a determination as to whether in future the conflict is likely to interfere significantly with the proper and effective performance of the functions and duties of the member of the Commission and the member with the conflict of interest

shall not vote on this determination

(6) Where the Commission determines that the conflict is likely to interfere significantly with the member's proper and effective performance as provided for in subsection (5), the member shall resign unless the member has eliminated the conflict to the satisfaction of the Commission within 30 days.

(7) The Commission shall report to the Minister any determination by the Commission that a conflict is likely to interfere significantly with performance as above and whether or not the conflict has been eliminated to the satisfaction of the Commission.

(8) The Annual Report of the Commission shall disclose details of all conflicts of interest and determinations arising during the period covered by the report.

[s. 66]

Confidentiality

77.-(1) In this section “material” includes any information, document or evidence.

(2) A person who gives or discloses any material to the Commission, whether under compulsion of law or otherwise, may claim confidentiality in respect of the whole or any part of the material.

(3) A claim for confidentiality may be made at any time before the material is disclosed to persons outside the Commission without any breach of the provisions of this section.

(4) In the case of oral evidence, the claim may be made orally at the time of giving the evidence and in all other cases it shall be in writing, signed by the person making the claim specifying the material and stating the reason for the claim.

(5) Where the Commission is satisfied that material is of a confidential nature and-

- (a) its disclosure could adversely affect the competitive position of any person; or
- (b) is commercially sensitive for some other reason, the Commission shall grant confidentiality for the material.

(6) The Commission shall give notice in writing to a person making a claim for confidentiality of the Commission's decision to grant or not grant confidentiality and, if it has not granted confidentiality, the Commission shall treat the material as confidential for a period of fourteen days after giving such notification.

(7) Where a claim for confidentiality-

- (a) is made in relation to material supplied to the Commission voluntarily; and
- (b) the Commission decides not to grant confidentiality in whole or in part for the material, that person who supplied the material may, within the fourteen days period provided under subsection (6), withdraw the material from the Commission together with other material supplied with it.

(8) Notwithstanding that the Commission has granted a claim for confidentiality under subsection (5), the Commission may disclose the material-

- (a) at any time without notice to any other person if-
 - (i) the disclosure is made to another person who is also performing a function under this Act;
 - (ii) the disclosure is made with the consent of the person who gave the material;
 - (iii) the disclosure is authorised or required under any other Act or law; or
 - (iv) the disclosure is authorised or required by a court or tribunal constituted by law; or

- (b) where the Commission is of the opinion that-
 - (i) disclosure of the material would not cause detriment to the person supplying it or the person to whom it relates; or
 - (ii) although the disclosure of the material would cause detriment to the person supplying it or the person to whom it relates, the public benefit in disclosing it outweighs the detriment, and the Commission has given fourteen days prior written notice to those persons of its intention to disclose the material pursuant to this provision.

(9) A person who is aggrieved by a decision of the Commission under this section not to grant a claim for confidentiality for material or to disclose confidential material may, at any time while the Commission is obliged by this section to keep the material confidential, appeal to the Tribunal against the decision and the Commission shall continue to treat the material confidential pending determination of the appeal.

(10) A person who discloses confidential information otherwise than as authorised by this section, commits an offence.
